Unofficial Memo No 196, dated the 19th May 1908, from the Secretary to Government of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, forwarding for the opinion of the Board papers relating to the improvement of water-supply to the town of Nanjangud, at a cost estimated at Rs. 14,000.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. 4389, dated the 5th June 1909, from the Chief Engineer in Mysore, forwarding a project amounting to Rs. 24,500, received from the Executive Engineer, Water-Supply and Stores Division, for the improvement of water-supply to the town.

3. Docket No. 366, dated the 26th June 1909, from the Executive Engineer, Water-Supply and Stores Division, received with letter No. 5269, dated the 7th July, from the Chief Engineer in Mysore, stating that the pumping plant proposed will also suffice for supplying water to the new extensions when these come into existence, all that could have to be done being to lay a branch main from the trunk main and to build a separate service reservoir at a central part of the extensions.

4. Letter No. 363, dated the 18th February 1910, from the Executive Engineer, Water-Supply and Stores Division, stating (1) that in preparing a proper and complete water-supply project, provision had to be made for the prospective population of ten thousand people, (2) that the original figures for engines, pipe lines and filters had therefore to be modified and (3) that provision has also been made for a new water tank costing Rs. 4,870, that will command all the parts of the town.

Resolution No. 3, dated Bangalore, the 3rd October 1910.

Resolved that the project amounting to Rs. 24,363, as revised in the Chief Engineer's Office, be passed, provided funds are available to meet the initial outlay as well as the annual maintenance charges including provision for depreciation of plant, which will be about Rs. 3,000.
